Q3 Project: Sound - DIY Recyclable Instrument

	Below Expectation	Meeting Expectation	Exceeding Expectation
Design	Did not complete a design or incomplete. Labeling and information is unclear.	Completed a design with labeling and materials listed. Information and design is clear and organized with adaptations.	Design is completed clearly with labels, and information is organized. With adaptations, materials, and information is organized.
Write up	Questions are incomplete. Has some information about what was completed and the process but very basic sentences.	Questions are answered with satisfactory responses. Explanation of trials, materials, and research for questions is organized.	Questions are answered with depth and connection to research. Explanation of trials, materials, and successes is thorough and organized.
Model	Not complete and most of the model is not recyclable material. Instrument cannot create two different pitches.	Model is made majority of recyclable materials and can create at least two different pitches.	Model is made majority of recyclable materials. It is neatly created and can give at least two pitches.
Presentation	Incomplete information and explanation on what they did. Instrument cannot demonstrate 2 different pitches.	Has satisfactory explanation and process of what they did and instrument can create at least 2 different pitches.	Can confidently explain process and give information. Their instrument can make 2 distinct pitches.

Design
Write up
Model
Presentation	